

52nd Internationales Sachsensymposium

18.–22. August 2001
Lund, Schweden

”Central Places in the Migration and Merovingian Periods”

Saturday, 18.8.2001

17.00 - 21.00 Registration at Lunds Universitets Historiska Museum, Krafts torg 1.

The Uppåkra exhibition at Lunds Universitets Historiska Museum will be opened during the evening.

Sunday, 19.8.2001

Chair of sessions: Torsten Capelle

09.00 – 09.30 Welcome speech by Birgitta Hårdh & Bente Magnus

09.30 – 10.00 Lars Larsson, Uppåkra - research on a central place

10.00 – 10.30 Birgitta Hårdh, Uppåkra in the Migration and Merovingian Periods

10.30 – 11.00 Coffee break

11.00 – 11.30 Bertil Helgesson, Uppåkra in the 5th to 7th centuries - the transformation of a central place and its hinterland

11.30 – 12.30 Eva Hjærtner-Holdar, Kristina Lamm & Bente Magnus, Metal working and central places

12.30 – 13.30 Lunch

13.30 – 17.00 Excursion to Uppåkra

19.00 – 21.00 Reception at Gamla Biskopshuset

The Uppåkra exhibition at Lunds Universitets Historiska Museum will be opened during the evening.

Monday, 20.8.2001

Chair of sessions: Ulla Lund Hansen

09.00 – 09.30 Per Ole Rindel, Regional settlement patterns and central places on Late Iron Age Zealand, Denmark

09.30 – 10.00 Jens N. Nielsen, Bejsebakken and other central sites on the Limfjord, North Jutland

10.00 – 10.30 Martin Segschneider, Trade places along the Jutish Westcoast in the Migration period

10.30 – 11.00 Coffee break

11.00 – 11.30 Alexandra Pesch, Die fernräumlichen Beziehungen des frühmittelalterlichen Zentralplatzes Uppåkra zu anderen Kultortregionen im Spiegel der Goldbrakteatenverbreitung

11.30 – 12.00 Pål Nicklasson, Central places in a peripheral area or peripheral places in a central area – A discussion on centrality in Halland

12.00 – 13.30 Lunch

Chair of sessions: Bente Magnus

13.30 – 14.00 Bergljot Solberg, Courtyard sites north of the polar circle - reflections of power in the Late Roman and Migration period

14.00 – 14.30 Heid Gjøstein Resi, Die archäologischen Ballungsräume des 3.- 8. Jahrhunderts in Südost-Norwegen. Bedeutung und Dauer

14.30 – 15.00 Ulf Näsman, Rural production and Central Places

15.00 – 15.30 Coffee break

15.30 – 16.00 Jytte Ringtved, Old finds - new tales. Landscape archaeology and its contribution to the study of central places.

16.00 – 16.30 Charlotte Fabech, Centrality in pre-Christian and the Christian landscape

16.30 – 17.00 Discussion

17.00 – 17.30 Poster presentation

17.30 – 20.00 Co-ordinating committee

Tuesday, 21.8.2001

Chair of sessions: John Hines

09.00 – 09.30 Katarina Ulmschneider, Central places and metal-detector finds: what are the productive sites?

09.30 – 10.00 Andrew Reynolds, Concentration and dispersal: models of administration in early England

10.00 – 10.30 Christopher Scull, Ipswich: development and contexts of a Central Place in the seventh century

10.30 – 11.00 Coffee break

11.00 – 11.30 Lynn Blackmore, London - 'a mart of many nations'

11.30 – 12.00 Nicholas Stoodley, The origins of Hamwic and its central role in the 7th century as revealed by recent archaeological discoveries

12.00 – 13.30 Lunch

Chair of sessions: H. W. Böhme

13.30 – 14.00 Howard Williams, Cemeteries as Central Places - Burial, Place and Identity in Migration Period England

14.00 – 14.30 Uta von Freeden, Straubing, ein zentraler Ort in Niederbayern von der Römerzeit bis heute

14.30 – 15.00 Laurent Verslype, Rural-urban dynamics and central places around the Scheldt and the Meuse between the Vth and the IXth century

15.00 – 15.30 Coffee break

15.30 – 16.00 Hauke Jöns, Gross Strömkendorf, an early medieval trading centre in the Wismar Bay

16.00 – 16.30 Lotte Hedeager, Asgard reconstructed?

16.30 – 17.30 Discussion

20.00 – Farewell dinner in Pelarsalen, Universitetshuset

Wednesday, 22.8.2001

8.00 – 18.00 Excursion in Scania.